MAJOR AND MINOR.

It is rumored that Sophie Menter will make a tour in this country this season under the management of Mr. F. A. Schwab.

Patti has now arranged to sail for New York October 25th. Nicotini will accompany her, and the rest of the company, which includes Madame Fabbri, M.M. Galassi, Lely, Novaris, and Marchionni, with Victor Arlotti as conductor, will leave on the same day. The season will open in New York on November 5th, and in all 40 concerts will be given, the first part of each programme being devoted to an act from a favorite opera.

People begin to play, and don't get into the swing until they have played one or two measures. The auto, the best of the piece, ought to have begun in the mind, in the feeling of the performer, before he puts a finger on the keyboard.—for Sterndale Bennett.

Anton Rubinstein, after indefatigable work for two years, has at last put the finishing touches to his great biblical opera "Christus." It is designated by him "as the work of his life," and he says that during its conception he was more than ever inspired.

Raoul Koczalski, the eight-year-old pianist of the German Court, has a repertory of 1,000 pieces. In sixty-four days he gave 100 concerts, and during the last three and a half years has played 305 times in public. Pretty good, this, for a youngster.

Bobby: Pop, what is a musical? Fond Parent: A musical, my son, is where a lot of people who know each other meet in a room and talk about the things that are going on in the world. They know, who are not present. Bobby: And what is a conversation? Fond Parent: A conversation is where the same people sit in sad and solemn silence, listening to a lot of mildewed music.

The Chevalier de Kotski has completed the transcontinental tour of America, and has arrived at San Francisco on his way to Japan. The latest report from the veteran musician is that he is in excellent health and spirits, and is enjoying his tour.

Veddi is writing another opera, and has invited the Italian singer, Emma Bellincioni, to create the leading role. "Your youth and beauty," said Veddi, at his first meeting with her, "will compensate for all the faults and failings in the composition of my old age."

Cook's Extra Dry Imperial Champagne is the pure juice of the grape naturally fermented. For bouquet it has no superior. Lord Coleridge writes: "Send me fifteen dozen Cook's Extra Dry Imperial Wine. I tried it while here and find it superior."

GRADUS AD PARNASSUM.

At first practice studies I. and II. with the fingering No. I. 543212345 then with No. II. 143212341 and lastly with No. III. 12121212.

The fingering given at Nos. II. and III. offers magnificent practice for the crossing under of the thumb and crossing over the thumb, the importance of which cannot be over estimated. Notes marked with an arrow must be struck from the wrist.

Velocé. ♩ 80 to ♩ 160.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of six systems. Each system contains a treble and bass staff. The right hand (treble staff) plays a continuous sixteenth-note scale pattern, often with fingerings like 1 2 3 4 5 4 3 2 1. The left hand (bass staff) plays chords and single notes, with fingerings like 1 2 3 4 5. Dynamic markings include 'cres.' (crescendo), 'dim.' (diminuendo), and 'ff' (fortissimo). An annotation 'A' is placed at the end of the sixth system.

A Where the thumb is used on the black keys the position of the other fingers is between the black keys.

This page contains six systems of musical notation for piano. Each system consists of a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with various musical notations including notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The notation is highly detailed, with many notes beamed together in groups, suggesting rapid passages or arpeggiated figures. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5. Dynamic markings include cres. (crescendo), sf (sforzando), and f (forte). The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The time signature is 4/4. The notation includes many slurs and ties, indicating a continuous flow of music. The bottom of the page features the number 1500. 32.

1500. 32

1599 - 32

This page of musical notation consists of six systems of staves, each containing a grand staff (treble and bass clef). The music is characterized by dense, flowing patterns, likely in a 24-measure system. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5, and dynamic markings such as cres. (crescendo), f (forte), and ten. (tension) are present. Pedal markings (Ped.) are also included. The notation includes various accidentals, slurs, and articulation marks, suggesting a technically demanding piece.

1500-32

This study should also be practiced with the following variations, which are very beneficial to the 4th finger.

Var. 1.

Var. II.

Presto. -76 to 152.

The image shows a page of musical notation for the song "The Rose Tree" (Der Rosenbaum). The score is written for piano and voice. The piano part is in 3/4 time and features a repeating eighth-note melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The voice part consists of a single line with lyrics in German. The notation includes various musical symbols such as clefs, time signatures, key signatures, and dynamic markings like "p" and "f".

The usefulness of this study will be still more obvious if the player will transpose it into the keys of A flat minor and A sharp minor. The exercise of transposing cannot be too early recommended to the pupil, as it cultivates the ear and develops the musical understanding.

Preliminary exercises. Repeat each exercise from 8 to 12 times.

Vivacissimo. ♩ - 66 to 132.

A transposition of this study into the keys of F sharp major and E major will be of great benefit to the student.

A Small hands may omit the middle note in these chords.

The musical score is written for a piano, featuring a treble and bass staff in each system. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 2/4. The score is divided into six systems. The first system is marked cres. and the second dimin.. The third system is marked cres. and the fourth f and cres.. The fifth system is marked ff. FAVORITE FASHION JOURNALS

Are Published Monthly in Paris in French and in English by

A. McDOWELL & CO.

THESE JOURNALS Have long been the Leaders of Fashion in Paris, and are now acknowledged to be the standard in this country.

THEY HAVE FOUR POINTS OF SUPERIORITY.
First—They produce original styles. Usually one month in advance of other journals.

Second—The styles are practical and reliable,
such as the better class in Paris wear.

Third—The practical lessons on how to cut and make garments are invaluable. These lessons simplifying dressmaking are valued at $12.00 per year.

Fourth—The colored plates are noted for giving the correct colors, of the materials used, as well as their general excellence.

These Journals are designed by different artists, consequently each one is peculiar to itself, giving
its own styles.

THEY HAVE NO EQUALS.

watch, can easily be carried in the vest pocket, is always ready for use, simple in its mechanism, and absolutely perfect in action. No person should be without one of these Metronomes. As most well written compositions are timed in according to the Metronome, it is an instrument that is almost indispensable.

THE ENGLEWOOD ROUTE.

The shortest way from St. Louis to the Columbian Exposition is via the Washab to Englewood and thence to the Fair Grounds via electric railway. All Washab trains stop at Englewood, and the Fair Grounds are only a few blocks from the Washab World's Fair, or those who go to the Fair for a day, will find the Englewood route the most expedient and convenient of any.

Those who intend to stop at down-town hotels or who have business in the mercantile portion of the city, will, of course, go through to the Washab Terminus—Dearborn Station—where they can, in the very brief Chicago Fair season, transfer the leading tourist and pleasure lines to Chicago and any other place. There are no drawbridges to pass for if you go via WABASH.

Numerous street, steamer and railway lines run from the Washab to the city to the World's Fair Grounds at frequent intervals.

Engene D'Albert's opera, "Der Rubin," will be produced this season at Carlsruhe, rehearsals beginning this month.

It is a great error to imagine that the sensibilities of the heart are blunted by knowledge of musical science, or that the imagination is diminished by refinement in music. On the contrary, on the contrary, in its exalted flight on the visions of wisdom, views art in a world of ethereal beauty.—Kila

Hans von Bülow, according to "Le Ménestrel," has recently said: "I am very fond of a Strauss waltz, and I cannot see any reason why such a work, which is always artistic, may be classed among the best of its kind, should not be performed from time to time by a large orchestra in serious concerts. It would give our ears a little rest from the severity of the classics, and would act like olives in preparing our palate for a fresh course."
